

The Homer Fitts Co.,

Incorporated

"The Store Where Quality Counts"

Tonight's the Night Thirty Second Anniversary and Reorganization Sale Closes Its Successful Career

Hundreds of satisfied shoppers have filled our aisles this week, enthusiastic over the wonderful values we have offered them. It may not again be possible to offer you such prices as prevail in this sale, consequently you should come to the store to-night, prepared to secure your share of the remarkable bargains.

Very Special for Tonight's Selling

$2.25 All Linen Damask, 72 inches wide, $1.75 yd.	29c Boxed Stationery, letter size 19c box
$5.50 All-Linen Napkins, 22 inches $4.49 doz.	$3.50 Plaid Blankets, size 64x80 $2.75 pair
$1.50 "Wearwell" Sheets, 81x90 inches $1.29 each	15c Cotton Crash, bleached and unbleached 11c yard
39c "Wearwell" Pillow Cases, 45x38 1/2 inches, 29c each	39c Women's Hosiery, in Black, fine hse. 29c pair
25c Turkish Towels, extra heavy 17c each	19c Dress Percale, 1 yard wide 15c yard
$3.50 Bath Robe Blankets, neat, dark patterns, $2.29 each	39c Silkette Waistings, fine finish 25c yard

Our Bargain Annex Saves You Money

TALK OF THE TOWN

Get the little Wanda Red Cross calendar at B. W. Hooker & Co's.

Harry H. "one of Springfield called on friends in the city yesterday.

Do you spend one dollar a week foolishly? If you do, try saving that amount each week in the Christmas club and see if you are not better satisfied at the end of the year.

Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co. Bank open Saturday and Monday evenings, 7 to 8 o'clock.

Although sessions at the high school, as well as in the grades, will not be resumed until Jan. 14, members of the Spaulding high school basketball quintet are practicing daily at the Spaulding gym, under the leadership of James Kenefick, a former Spaulding athlete, who has undertaken the direction of the team this season.

The first game for Spaulding on the interscholastic league schedule has been arranged to be played at Burlington next Friday evening with the quintet of the Burlington high school. Capt. Geals, Mann, Young, Morse and Lyon form a fine nucleus for the first string team, while Carpenter, Murphy, Blanchard, McMahon, Wilkin and Beck should prove themselves players of sterling qualities during the league games this season.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Get the 1918 calendar and benefit the Red Cross; on sale at B. W. Hooker & Co's.

Miss Mildred Higgs of Prospect street left yesterday for Moretown, where she will visit for a few days at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Albert Abbott.

This year many of our Christmas club members are planning to save more than they did last year. Are you? Better come in and join now. Bank open 7 to 8 Saturday and Monday evenings. Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Matthew Haley of West street, who recently returned to the city after being employed by the Underwood Typewriter company of Hartford, Conn., during the past year, commenced his duties as a clerk at the A. A. Lamorey clothing store this morning.

Stephen Marchetti, who has been spending several weeks at his home here, left last night for Buffalo, N. Y., where he has secured a position in the Pierce-Arrow office. He was accompanied by Peter Giachero and A. S. Rizzi, the former going to Buffalo to enter a school, while the latter will continue in charge of the western office of Rizzi Bros. in Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McMahon, who have been visiting in the home of the former's brother, Martin McMahon of West street for a few days, returned early this afternoon to their home in Sherbrooke, P. Q. Before leaving Sherbrooke Mr. McMahon was compelled to affix his photographs to a passport issued by the Canadian authorities, and upon his appearance on this side the border he was subjected to a rigid cross examination on the part of the customs officials. Mr. and Mrs. McMahon came to Barre from Boston, where they have been visiting for a week, and are hastening home because their passport permitted them to remain in the United States only 10 days.

Pete Cota, bartender at the Hub establishment in Pearl street, in receipt of a letter from George Jay, a former Washington county boy, who is with the American forces in France. Private Jay speaks of the comfortable environment he is in and intimates that the men are anxious to get a crack at the Boches. He enlisted in the 1st Vermont regiment and was in one of the first contingents to cross the Atlantic last summer. Private Jay is a brother of Jack Jay, whose letter to Ralph George of Elmore street was reprinted in yesterday's Times. The tone of his missive to Mr. Cota indicates that the Americans are far from being downhearted.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, JANUARY 5, 1918.

The Weather

Generally fair to-night and Sunday; diminishing north winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New Scotch yarn in good shades for sweaters, on to-day at B.W. Hooker & Co's.

Clyde Houghton of Northfield was a business visitor in the city Wednesday.

Natale Venetti went to Waterbury this morning to pass the week end with relatives.

For the benefit of the Red Cross, calendars for 1918 are on sale at B. W. Hooker & Co's.

"Spiritual Experience of Private John Ogg" is the theme for the sermon at the Presbyterian church to-morrow night.

The amusement committee of the Odd Ladies is requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Walker, Mount street, on Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

It is time that you came in and opened that Christmas club account. Bank open 7 to 8 o'clock Saturday and Monday. Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Miss Nina Cassellini, who has been passing the holidays at her home here, went to Washington this afternoon, there to resume her duties in the town schools, which reopen Monday.

Miss Minnie Huntington, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Lyman Taft of Mount street and Mrs. B. B. Jackson of the Montpelier road, for the past two weeks, returned to her home in Boston to-day.

John McRae, who was formerly employed in the local office of the Western Union, arrived in the city this morning for a visit of several days. Mr. McRae is employed by the Hood Rubber company in Boston.

Prof. Antonio Mangano, who came to Barre on a day's stop, would be glad to meet the members of the 101st English class at the Italian mission school rooms, Brook street, this evening. He expects to be there at 7 o'clock.

Alden Bailey, who has been employed by the American Express company at St. Johnsbury during the past several months, is visiting for a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey of Maple avenue.

The little girl whose picture appears on the Red Cross calendar which is being sold at the store of B. W. Hooker & Co. for the benefit of the Red Cross work, is Wanda Beltrami, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Beltrami of 72 Brook street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McMahon, who have been visiting in the home of the former's brother, Martin McMahon of West street for a few days, returned early this afternoon to their home in Sherbrooke, P. Q. Before leaving Sherbrooke Mr. McMahon was compelled to affix his photographs to a passport issued by the Canadian authorities, and upon his appearance on this side the border he was subjected to a rigid cross examination on the part of the customs officials. Mr. and Mrs. McMahon came to Barre from Boston, where they have been visiting for a week, and are hastening home because their passport permitted them to remain in the United States only 10 days.

Pete Cota, bartender at the Hub establishment in Pearl street, in receipt of a letter from George Jay, a former Washington county boy, who is with the American forces in France. Private Jay speaks of the comfortable environment he is in and intimates that the men are anxious to get a crack at the Boches. He enlisted in the 1st Vermont regiment and was in one of the first contingents to cross the Atlantic last summer. Private Jay is a brother of Jack Jay, whose letter to Ralph George of Elmore street was reprinted in yesterday's Times. The tone of his missive to Mr. Cota indicates that the Americans are far from being downhearted.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

In a letter to Gelsey Monti of State's Atty. Earle R. Davis' office, "Mike" Florida Cerasoli submits a copy of the neatly printed menu from which the American soldiers in the 101st ammunition train "over there" selected their Thanksgiving dinner. The text follows: "Hotel de la Caserne, Thanksgiving dinner, somewhere in France, 1917; potage de la turk; roast turkey and gravy, a la froids manges; mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes; cranberry sauce, camouflagé; hot mince pie, si ca vient; mixed nuts, granades, raisins, shrapnel; lemonade, liquid fire, cafe de l'armee; note, bring your own mess gear." Sergeant Mike testifies eloquently to the excellence of the lay-out.

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

OUR JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

Began This Morning and Will Continue Until January 26

There is no other sale of the year that approaches the January Clearance Sale or is so practical in its economies. Merchandise that you will need every day of the year is offered in this sale very much under the regular market values, and no doubt it will be a long time before the present qualities and costs can be equalled.

It may not be good business for us to hold a Clearance Sale now, as we can't duplicate any of our staple goods except at very much higher prices. If there ever was a time when people should economize it is now, and this is the sale that will help you to do it. Do not neglect the opportunity. Everyone come and come during the opening days.

Big Sale of Dresses at $8.75

A good assortment of stylish Wool and Silk Dresses, all pretty models of All Wool Serges, Taffetas, etc. If you need a fashionable Dress, buy it in this sale. Come early. Regular values to $14.50.

We know there are many waiting for this sale, and you may come with the fullest assurance of getting the best possible values for your money in all household necessities and wearing apparel.

You will appreciate this sale more than ever this year.

A Sale of Fleece Underwear at 47c

16 dozen Ladies' Fleece Vests in regular and extra sizes, high neck, long sleeves, Dutch neck, elbow sleeves.

This is an unusual bargain and the garments are worth at least 65c.

ALL TABLE DAMASK AT 10 PER CENT. DISCOUNT

There will be no more Linen Damask until after the war. Our regular prices are 25 to 33 1-3 per cent. less than the market values, and with this additional discount during the sale it means a considerable saving to you. If you need any good Damask, buy all you can now.

Sale of Towels, 29c each

These Hemmed Turkish Towels are a good large size and good weight. Value 39c.

Sale of Bedspreads, $2.39 each

Hemmed Crochet and Mar-seilles Pattern Bedspreads, full bed size and worth $3.00 each.

Sale of Bedspreads at $3.19

Just 30 of these extra large size Hemmed Satin Quilts, in beautiful designs; worth $5.

A Crash Special, 12 1/2c yard

2,000 yards of Bleached Crash Toweling, several kinds in this assortment, but none worth less than 17c yard.

Sale of Pillow Cases, 15c each

These will not last long at this price. Made of good Bleached Cotton and well worth 20c.

Bleached Sheets, $1.10 each

Only a limited quantity, full bed size, 81x90, limit 2 to each customer, value $1.39.

Sale Lace Curtains, $1.39 pr.

Nottingham Lace Curtains in several good designs. Regularly worth $1.75 to $2.00 pair. All other Lace and Scrim Curtains in this sale at 20 per cent. discount.

Sale Prices on All Blankets

Our remaining stock of Bath Robe Blankets to be closed out in this sale at one price, $2.95. Regular values, $3.50 to $4.50.

A Sale of Scrims, 21c yard

36-inch White and Ecru Curtain Scrims, 36 inches wide, with plain and fancy H. S. borders. Values, 25c to 35c.

Ready-to-Wear Department

In this great Clearance Sale, every Suit, Coat and Dress must be sold. Remember, the garments offered in this sale are new and up-to-date. The decisive price reductions will insure a speedy and thorough clearance, as our policy is (and it must be carried out), nothing in ready-to-wear carried over from one season to another.

All Suits at Half Price

Every Suit in the store must be sold, and sold quickly. An unusually attractive collection of the season's most favored models, only one of a kind. The assortment includes Navy, Black, Brown and Green, in the fashionable materials.

Stylish Coats at the most radical reductions. Now is the time to buy a good, warm, stylish Coat at the very minimum of cost. No thought of profit now. Every Coat must be sold regardless of what they cost.

Lot 1—Ladies' and Misses' Coats at $5.00

Fancy Wool Mixture Coats in misses' and ladies' sizes. These will go quickly. Actual values $12.50 to $14.50.

Lot 2—Stylish New Coats at $10.75

If you appreciate real values, you must see this assortment of up-to-date Wool Coats in Wool Velour, etc. Regular values to $19.50.

Lot 3—Snappy New Models at $13.75

All high-grade and very stylish Coats, warm, serviceable garments, belted and semi-belted. Regular values to $23.50.

Lot 4—High-Grade Coats at $18.50

Stunning new models in the most fashionable fabrics and colors, an exceptional Coat bargain. Regular values up to $32.50.

All Our Children's Coats at Clearance Prices

See the special bargain lot to close out at $3.98. Regular values to $7.50. All other Coats marked equally low for quick clearance.

A Clearance Sale of Dresses at $13.75

A splendid assortment of Satin, Fine Serge and Taffeta Dresses, only one of a kind. These are the very best styles and a wonderful bargain. Regularly sold up to $22.50.

One Lot of Dresses to close out quickly at Half Price

All of our Wool Serge and Poplin Skirts that sell regularly at $5.00 to $5.98 to close out at this price.

Sweaters at 25 Per Cent. Discount

Every Sweater for ladies and children at 25 per cent discount.

Clearance Sale of Furs

Every piece of Fur in the store—Sets, Muffs, Scarfs, etc.—at One-Third Less Than the Regular Prices

BUY YOUR SILKS NOW

A Sale of Silks at $1.29

Our entire stock of Messalines that sell regularly as our leader at $1.50 yd., also our odd pieces of Fancy Striped and Plaid Silks that sell at $1.75 and $2.00 yd., to be offered in this big sale at $1.29.

All Dress Goods 10 per cent. off

Silk and Cotton Crepes 42c yd. These are all in desirable shades, 36-in. wide and regularly sold at 50c.

WINTER UNDERWEAR AT SALE PRICES

Ladies' Union Suits at 89c

Ladies' Fleece Union Suits, high and low neck, regular and extra sizes, val., $1 and $1.10.

Fleece Pants at 59c

Regular and extra sizes, good quality, usual prices 65c